

MATES ON A MISSION

is coming to the North West of NSW

Mike Rolls & Ben Pettingill, affectionately known as Legless & Blind, are two down to earth mates on a mission. Simply put, they both know first hand what it is like to face tough times and battle mental health. Ski for Life is bringing this powerful duo to the North West with 5 fantastic events for the community where there will be powerful stories, plenty of laughs and practical tools around looking after yourself and your mates.
